

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
Helmut Steiner, Berlin
Summary	11
Nikolai Genov, Sofia
Editorial
Central and Eastern Europe: Challenges of continuing transformation	21
Nikolai Genov, Sofia
 PART I
TRANSFORMATION: CONCEPTS AND EXPERIENCE
 Risks of Success. The special case of East Germany	41
Michael Thomas, Berlin
Transformation risks and human capital development	56
Zhivko Nedev, Sofia
Underestimation of complexity: A major risk in post-communist transformation	67
Michal Illner, Prague
Transformation risks: The experience of disintegrated societies	75
Aivars Tabuns, Riga
Assessment of transformation risks: The case of Macedonia	85
Mirjana Maleska, Skopje
Transformation and the threat of drug abuse	95
Yantsislav Yanakiev, Sofia
 PART II
UNEMPLOYMENT AS A SOCIAL RISK
 New strategies and programmes of promoting employment and counteracting unemployment in Poland	105
Mieczysław Kabaj, Warsaw

The labour market in Bulgaria	121
Oleg Chulev, Sofia
Outsiders in the labour market: Russian men and women facing unemployment	127
Elena Mezentsseva, Moscow
Unemployment, political protest and radicalism: The example of East Germany	140
Karl-Dieter Opp, Leipzig
Unemployment and poverty	173
Maria Zheliazkova, Sofia
Long-term unemployment in Macedonia	183
Lidija Petkovska-Hristova, Skopje
Unemployment: Challenges to education	189
Mariana Zakhariyeva, Sofia
Communication problems of the unemployed. (St. Matthew's Effect on the Unemployed)	198
Vyara Gancheva, Sofia
Unemployment and crime	205
Anna Mantarova, Sofia
Strategies of former military officers for finding new employment	215
Peter Stoimenov, Christo Domozetov, Sofia
Prospects of the bulgarian labor market in adaption to the European Union	222
Sasha Todorova, Sofia
Inhaltsverzeichnis	229